

MEDIA ADVISORY
22 October 2021

For immediate release

FORMER IBF MINIMUMWEIGHT BOXING WORLD CHAMPION NKOSINATHI JOYI AND OTHER FORMER BOXING STARS TO RECEIVE DIGITAL SKILLS TRAINING TO FIGHT UNEMPLOYMENT

WHAT: ECSECC in partnership with NEMISA (entity of the Department of Communications and Digital Technologies) will conduct a skills training workshop with a group of former Mdantsane boxers. The boxers include former IBF Minimumweight boxing world champion Nkosinathi Joyi, Yanga Phethani, Mpumelelo Mbedle, Ayanda Njengele, Thembelani Nxoshe and Simphiwe Lusizi. The stars will be joined by other community members to be trained on the day.

WHO: ECSECC has been mandated by the Office of The Eastern Cape Premier to roll out a digital skilling initiative to equip all citizens of the province with skills needed in today's economy. To ensure that the boxers have the best experience, ECSECC is partnering with NEMISA to provide them with the digital literacy training due to NEMISA's extensive experience in conducting these virtual trainings face-to-face and in a safe manner.

END.

Media Contact:
Zwanga Mukhuthu
ECSECC Digital Communications Officer
0718843567
Zwanga@ecsecc.org

or Siphe Macanda
NEMISA Communications Officer
0784022583

DATE
MONDAY
25 Oct, 2021

VENUE
MDANTSANE LIBRARY
HIGHWAY PRECINCT
NU1

TIME
09:00AM

12 Gloucester Road, Vincent, East London, 5217
Postnet Vincent, Private Bag X9063, Suite No. 302, Vincent, 5247

T: +27 (0)43 701 3400 F: +27 (0)43 701 3415
E: info@ecsecc.org W: www.ecsecc.org